She's baaaaaack!

Home at last, home at last, home at last!

After a record number of days in Kenya, our fearless Executive Director returned to that which she missed: "my son, my family, my shower, the smell of clean clothes coming from the dryer, my bed, my friends and pray group and the ease of doing my work in my office."

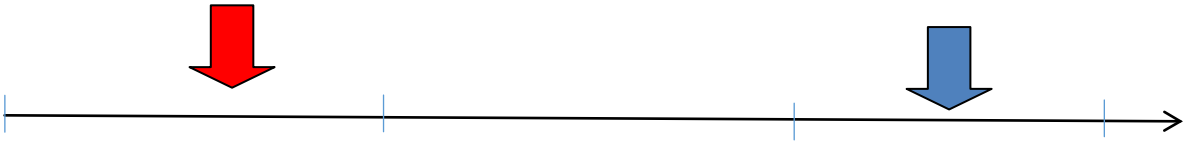

Just to recap the trials and tribulations of this year's mission trip a couple of juicy little timelines are illustrative (and who doesn't like a good timeline?):

Box shipment #1

Expected Arrival Date

Actual Date
August 15

7 weeks late

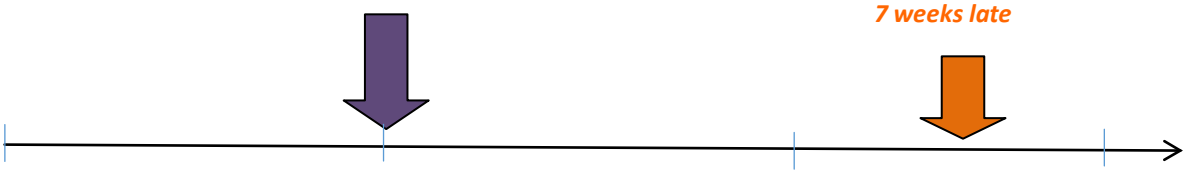

July 1 | August 1 | September 1 | October 1

Box shipment #2

Expected Arrival Date

Actual Date
September 23

7 weeks late

July 1 | August 1 | September 1 | October 1

Talk about needing to call an "on-the-field audible" (or for Blackhawk fans – "a 2nd and 3rd period adjustment") **!

But, as our beloved E.D. has done for over 10 years now, the donations got distributed and the lives of many have been improved. We tip our hat to you Michelle!

Your effort is inspiring and a monumental expression of faith. Welcome Back!
